Gender Education

The Gender Education project has completed 8 modules of the Foundation Course to date. In Module 8, participants explored common myths and misconceptions related to sexuality. The session encouraged adolescents to openly ask questions and understand concepts such as sexuality, sexual identity, relationships and sexual health. Through interactive activities and visual learning materials, participants discussed the differences between facts and misconceptions related to male and female reproductive anatomy. The session created a safe space for adolescents to clarify their doubts, develop accurate knowledge and engage in open discussions on sensitive issues.

Center for Learning Assistance

This month, both learning centres celebrated Teachers' Day and Ganesh Chaturthi through creative activities, including making handmade Ganapati idols. These celebrations provided opportunities for children to learn values such as respect, gratitude, creativity and ethical behaviour. Alongside these activities, Learning Assistants continued with the regular learning curriculum to strengthen children's foundational learning and improve their learning outcomes.

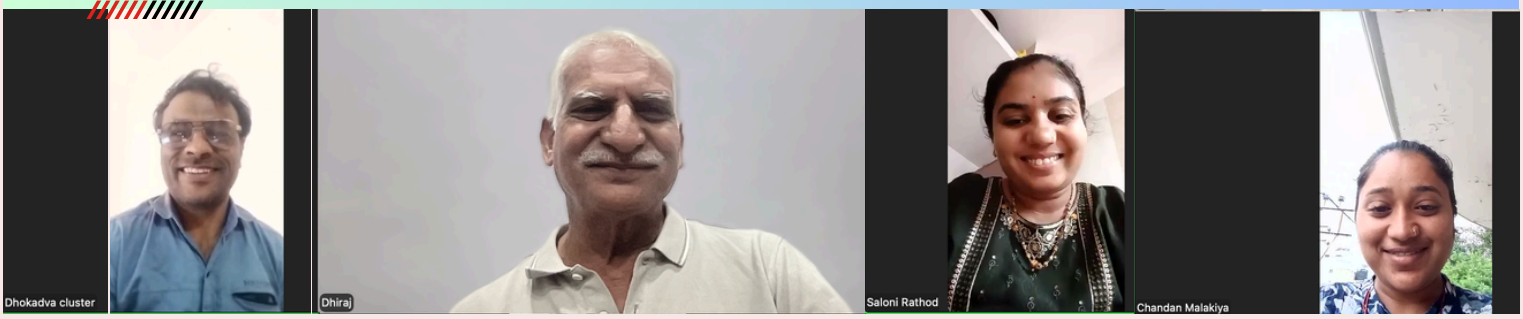

Writeup sessions

The monthly write-up session focused on documenting and discussing success stories emerging from the field. The team also reviewed the report of the “Building Resilient and Confident Workshop for Youth”, reflecting on key learnings and outcomes from the workshop.

Reading Session

The reading session explored the importance of interdependence and collective effectiveness in everyday life. The discussion highlighted how teamwork, team building, unity with others and co-creative relationships contribute to meaningful and sustainable effectiveness.
